HITHER AND YON—Simone and Walter Stern farewelling friends via dinner at Brennan's before taking off for a Yugoslavia holiday. Others at tables around the main dining-room: Col. and Mrs. John F. Brun celebrating their silver wedding anniversary with her sister Tom Sawyers (that's right, proof reader, Tom Sawyers is a lady); Tina and Hal Roberts swapping repartee with friends; also Harold England, Greater N.O. Tourist Commission prez, selling N.O. to a couple of visitors; and Clay Shaw, livin' up The New Yorker article, in a large party with Marilynn Tate, Elena Lyons, Lamonte and Douglas, and others . . . "Jo" and Robert Cart, of the Crowley Daily Signal, in a double-whammy anniversary celebration—their 24th and son and daughter-in-law Patsy and Tom Cart's first—at the Court of Two Sisters. ("Jo" is the editor of the Original Rice and Creole Cook Book.)
